The chart shows the frequency class distribution of a variable. The categories include:

1. None: 61% of the values are classified in this category.
2. A few: 42% of the values fall into this category.
3. Several: 23% of the values are in this category.
4. Many: 14% of the values are in this category.

The danger level categories are:

- 1-Low: 86% of the values fall into this danger level.
- 2-Mod: 11% of the values are in this category.
- 3-Cons: 3% of the values are in this category.
- 4-High: 10% of the values are in this category.

The proportion in % for each category is as follows:

- None: 3%
- A few: 11%
- Several: 10%
- Many: 0%

The chart provides a visual representation of the distribution and danger level.