Solubility-dependent differences in elution behavior of impurities

(a) quick to immediate when >75% dissolved in water

(b) increasing when partly water-soluble but with affinity for snow grain surfaces

(c) at the end when associated with particulate matter & snow surfaces

(d) bimodal when combination of partly dissolved & partly particulate