Interactive comment on “Is snow sublimation important in the alpine water balance?” by U. Strasser et al.

U. Strasser et al.

Received and published: 21 April 2008

Thanks to both Reviewers and the Editor: All three tend to agree in the modifications they suggest for the final publication of the paper. We will 1) shorten the paper as indicated, and 2) provide some sort of model validation as suggested by the reviewers. The improved manuscript will be submitted according to TC guidelines within the next two weeks.
