

Interactive comment on “An assessment of uncertainties in using volume-area modelling for computing the twenty-first century glacier contribution to sea-level change” by
A. B. A. Slangen and R. S. W. van de Wal

I. M. Howat (Editor)

ihowat@gmail.com

Received and published: 2 August 2011

I thank the two referees for thorough and insightful reviews. Both are supportive of publication following minor revisions, mostly targeted at providing a more complete consideration of the error terms, revised presentation, and correction and clarification of numerous technical points. I encourage the authors to submit a revised manuscript that incorporates these changes and to respond to the reviewer comments with a point-by-point rebuttal, highlighting what changes were made or why they were not adopted.

C810

Interactive comment on The Cryosphere Discuss., 5, 1655, 2011.