We would like to thank the scientific editor for obtaining the reviews, and the two referees for providing detailed and thoughtful comments. We are glad to see that both referees evaluate our paper to be of high quality, and to be in a good position for publication. In the attached file we describe point-by-point how we addressed the issues raised. There is no doubt that the referees' comments improve the revised version of the manuscript.

Sincerely, T. Mölg, F. Maussion, W. Yang, and D. Scherer
