Dear Jean-Louis Tison:

We are grateful for the opportunity to receive feedback on our manuscript and thank you and Copernicus Publications very much. We appreciate your efforts and value the comments provided by two anonymous reviewers.

We understand that a major re-organisation and re-write of the manuscript is required and should be followed by a fresh peer-review.

We are, however, unfortunately not in a position to commit the necessary time, in the

Thanks again, and best regards,
