

Dear Etienne,

Thank you for your suggestions on how to revise our manuscript. I hope that I have now phrased it in an acceptable way so that it is clear that a hydrological connection between the two lakes is not confirmed in our work, but that the timing of their drainages could possibly indicate that such a connection exists.

Also a huge thank you for your quick and thorough feedback during the entire process.

Best regards,
Louise